

Dying Angel Heavy Metal from Germany.

The band Dying Angel was founded in 2019. Unfortunately, the Corona pandemic slowed down the band's enthusiasm, but it never came to a standstill. They wrote their own songs and as soon as they could, they got on stage and showed that they were a force to be reckoned with. The band describes itself as a heavy metal band, which emphasizes the classic line-up with vocals, 2 guitars, bass and drums. 5 different characters form the unique sound that characterizes Dying Angel and cannot be pigeonholed. Musicians who create a powerful sound with their love of music and give their all live to offer the audience an unforgettable rock show. Dying Angel hasn't said it all yet and has big plans for the future.
